BARTL FEELS CONFIDENT

Of Winning the Match Tomorrow Night.

AKERMAN A QUITTER

According to Reports From Men Who Know Him.

Everything in Readiness for Triangular Contest to Take Place Friday Evening.

Fred Bartl, the local wrestler is hard at work for his match with Woodmansee and Watson on tomorrow night. In spite of the muddy condition of the roads and the rain Bartl has taken a six mile run daily and is in the best of condition.

Woodmansee and Watson, who here that they are in shape for the match and both feel confident that Bartl has for once overestimated his ability as a wrestler.

Woodmansee has always shown as a Greece-Roman wrestler and is much better at that style of work, than in the catch-as-catch-can class.
He asked to be given a chance at his style of wrestling and has been accommodated. The contest tomorrow evening should be a good one and those who attend will get their money's worth for there will be feathers flying in the air before Bartl has thrown both his opponents twice in ninety minutes.

The advance sale of seats, has been unusually large and a big house is promised. A fast interesting preliminary bout between local men will take place before the big contest.

Since Al Akerman, the Lima wrestler was beautifully showed up on Christmas night by Fred Bartl the local man, the friends and back-ers of Akerman have done everything possible to make it appear that Lima was dead as far as the wrestling game is concerned.

Such is not the case. A well known sporting man from Lima, while in Marion today said that the town was just as crazy for wrestling as ever, but the people had stood the four flushing tactics of Akerman just as long as they could.
Bartl can today draw larger crowds than ever Akerman could, because the Lima people find that he is a better man than Akerman ever was.
The Lima people grew tired of the baby actions of Akerman in his three matches with Bartl and were not backward in telling Akerman what they thought of him as a wrestler.

All kinds of reports have been sent out of Lima by friends of Akerman with the hope of killing the game. Papers have taken up the cause reports and the news has spread like wild fire. Wrestling is not dead in Lima but Akerman is.
Finley is, sure on Doc Jones, the referee of the Bartl-Akerman match and justly so and swears he will give Lima the go-by. In the meanwhile Bartl will wrestle in Marion and Dayton. If Akerman ever comes to Marion to meet Bartl he will finish the match and not ship away as Referee Jones allowed him to do. It was about the rank-est piece of officiating ever performed in a wrestling match in Ohio and Akerman proved to be a rank quitter. He knows Bartl is a better man than himself.

The following taken from the Cleveland Leader although not true is of some interest. The story is the outcome of knocking down by Akerman's newspaper manager and his gang and must be taken for what it is worth.

"The wrestling game has been killed in Lima, O., where the sport has been fostered for two years, owing to the remarkable showing of Al Akerman. According to all reports, the wrestlers are the ones to blame for the sport being killed in the little sporting town, where the people turned out strong to see the matches.

"Akerman, who formerly hailed from Fostoria, O., was responsible for the great interest taken in the sport at its start. In fact, for a year, he made a small fortune at the game, wrestling once or twice a week, defeating all comers before crowded houses. And still it is this same Akerman who is responsible for its downfall and placed Lima in the has been class. His match with Gehring was the first backward step for when he found a man who appeared to have something on him Akerman claimed that he had his head badly injured in bumping against a post. Still he was in shape to wrestle Swanson and go to a long draw.

"No decision was made in the Gehring match, although, according to all rules, the Cleveland man should have been given the bout, as Akerman refused to go on. But Art Lamb did not press his point, as referee left the ring, refusing to award a winner, the Cleveland man waiting for a return bout, leaving the $100 up with the Leader to bind a return match. Neither Geh-ring nor Lamb has heard anything from Akerman. The latter's breaking killed "the man that laid the golden egg" was made the other evening, when he wrestled Bartl.
This bout turned out to be a rough and tumble affair, the police stepping in and stopping it. That was probably the last match to be held in Lima for some time, as the citizens and promoters will not tolerate the game.

"Lima is only experiencing the late of the sport that took place in Cleveland, Buffalo, Rochester, Chicago, Detroit and elsewhere. The latest fiasco between Beell and Gehring will also put a crimp into the sport. The management of the Star Theatre are making a determined effort to rejuvenate the sport in this city by holding a 'city championship carnival, and their venture will be watched with interest."

BADLY INJURED

Madison Evans, C. D. & M. Motor-man Meets with Accident.

Madison Evans, married, of Stratford, employed as motorman on the C. D. and M., work car was badly injured Wednesday morning about 10 o'clock. The train car was working a short distance south of Stratford when Evans in helping to unload some heavy poles had his left leg pinched.

At first it was thought the leg had been broken. The injured man was taken to his home and Drs.
Fowler and Buck of Delaware and A. L. Neeraman of the C. D. and M. were summoned. Upon examination it was found that only a severe sprain and bruise existed.

"GIRL OF THE STREETS"

Is the Bill for This Evening at the Grand Opera House.

To a discerning audience "Girl of the Streets" appeals inresistibly and the flavor of the New York slums, with its manners and conventionalities, brings up memories of travels or descriptions read. The play gives opportunities for scenic picturesqueness, which is fully embraced. The immense success of this play proves that this style of high-class, pure, wholesome comedy finds favor everywhere.
There is much interest in the announcement of its appearance at the Grand this evening with charming Miss Katharine Crego at the head of the excellent company of fourteen.

A New Stomach

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Restore Lifeless Organs to Normal Condition.

A TRIAL PACKAGE FREE.

Many a sufferer from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and kindred ailments of the digestive organs carries around an absolutely useless stomach—a dead load, and a cesspool for ever-increasing disorders. The muscles are seemingly worn out, the mucous lining has lost its secretory power, and good taken into the stomach lies there and ferments, causing sour eructations, belchings, heartburn, dizziness and other distressing conditions. Many sufferers have given up in despair until they have been induced by some interested friend to try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the dyspeptic's sure and only hope. They are a natural restorative of healthy action to the stomach and small intestines because they supply just the elements that the weak stomach lacks—pepsin, dextrine, golden seal and other digestives.

If you are afflicted with any of the symptoms above described, be assured that your digestive organs are losing power—they need help and there is no more sensible help to be given than to supply elements which will do the work of digestion for them.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been found by the test of reputable physicians in the United States and Great Britain to have remarkable digestive powers, one grain of the active principle of these tablets being sufficient to digest 3,000 grains of ordinary food. It is plain that no matter what the condition of your stomach, or how far your disease has progressed, one only of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken at meal time will do the work—give your stomach an opportunity to regain its lost powers, the muscles will be strengthened, the glands invigorated, and you will be a new man.

It costs nothing to prove the effectiveness of this cure. Send for a free sample package today. F. A.

BURKT AND HIS MUSICAL DOGS

One of the Cleverest Acts Ever Witnessed at the Marion Family Theater.

IS SUCCESSOR TO GARFIELD.
H. K. Smith to Take Charge of Bureau of Corporations.

Washington.—Herbert Knox Smith will succeed James H. Garfield as commissioner of corporations of the department of commerce and labor. Mr.
Smith is at present the deputy commissioner, and he had a principal part in the work of preparing indictments against the Standard Oil company for alleged illegal railway discrimination at Chicago, St. Louis, Jackson, Tenn., and Jamestown, N. Y.

After Edwin W. Sims of Chicago was appointed United States district attorney, Mr. Smith acted as solicitor of the bureau of corporations. He HERBERT KNOX SMITH.

(Successor to Garfield as Commissioner of Corporations.)

was a member of the government commission which investigated the disaster to the steamer General Slocum, and of the federal commission that looked into the wreck of the steamer Valencia on the North Pacific coast.

Mr. Smith was engaged for a long time in drafting new laws and regulations for the safeguarding of passengers on sea, lake and ocean-going craft. Under his direction the steamboat inspection service has been put upon a plane of thoroughness.

There is a strong personal friendship between President Roosevelt and Mr. Smith. Promotion came to the deputy commissioner of corporations, however, as the result of his work and because of the endorsement of his immediate superior officers, and not because of the president's personal liking.

Mr. Smith was born in Massachusetts, but went to Connecticut with his parents when he was a child. He was graduated from Yale in the class of 1891, and from the Yale law school four years later. Until he entered the government service he was a practicing lawyer at Hartford. He was a member for two years of the Hartford common council, served in the Connecticut legislature for two years and was active in local and state Republican politics.

Mr. Smith is a member of several clubs; he is a believer in outdoor sports, and he is a frequent opponent of President Roosevelt in games of tennis on the White House grounds.

QUAINT OFFICES.

Court of St. James Full of Oddly-pointed Officers.

King Edward has just conferred upon Dr. Armitage Robinson, dean of Westminster abbey, the office of lord high almoner. This dignity, usually held by a bishop or archbishop, must not be confounded with that of grand almoner to the crown, which, dating back to the reign of King Edward I, is a lay office, hereditary in the noble house of Beauchamp, Latimer and Cecil, being now vested in the marquis of Exeter.

The hereditary grand almoner of-ficiates only at coronations, when he is supposed to distribute certain sums of money, from an immense silver dish, at the doors of the abbey of Westminster, retaining the silver dish afterward as the fee of his office.

The king's lord high almoner, on the other hand, is invariably an ecclesiastic, ranks as one of the great officers of the royal household, and the chief spiritual adviser of the sovereign, distributes the latter's alms and bounty on Maundy Thursday, and possesses the queer prerogative, no longer exercised, it is true, of being allowed to seize the first dish that appears on the royal table, and to hand it out.

We have searched the markets for a pure olive oil and have found one that is absolutely pure, answering all the requirements of the new pure food law.

This oil is made from ripe olives grown in the neighborhood of Athens, Greece.

This oil will not turn rancid, is pleasant to the taste and is bottled in bond. Excellent for medical or culinary purposes. 40 cents the bottle.
